1 Timothy 5:17-18

- 1. Honoring elders as the leaders of Christ's church means PROVIDING for both their spiritual and material needs.
- 2. The Church was God the Father's plan before creation, and the Church was birthed and REDEEMED by the work of the Son of God on the cross.
- 3. A key factor in the Church's understanding of its mandate and having vision to fulfill its calling is found in its LEADERSHIP.
- 4. "We ask you, brothers, to respect those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, and to ESTEEM them very highly in love because of their work." 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13
- 5. "Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of DOUBLE honor, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching." 1 Timothy 5:17
- 6. Paul makes the point that those who LABOR in the preaching and teaching of God's Word are worthy of compensation for the time and energy spent In caring for, teaching and shepherding a community.
- 7. "In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their LIVING by the gospel." 1 Corinthians 9:14
- 8. "So shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not RETURN to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I send it." Isaiah 55:11
- 9. If elders are working hard to provide spiritual FOOD to the flock, their needs are to be provided for by the flock.
- 10. How a church community honors its elders is spiritual worship before God. It is a HEART issue; if that community loves God, it will love its elders, caring for them with honor.
