Philippians 4:19

Philippians 1:9-11

Philippians 4:5-7

Exalts Christ

Philippians 1:20, 27-28

1. Everything that distinguishes Christians from the world in a Christ-exalting way is a work of God's supernatural grace. God has ordained that His grace flow to us through _____. Prayer must be central, not peripheral to our lives.

2. "I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in _____ prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now." Philippians 1:3-5

3. Paul's mind is first towards God and then towards the brethren. He is aware that if his words are to awaken the experience of grace and peace it will be because God has _____ his words of prayer and made them the channel of His grace and peace.

4. "My God will supply every _____ of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:19

5. In making his prayer public, Paul displays his total dependency upon Christ demonstrating to all listening that God is a glorious, _____ God. God receives glory through their love, blamelessness, discernment, and their righteous deeds because these come "through Jesus Christ" in answer to prayer.

6. Paul says, "I will rejoice, for I _____ that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance." Philippians 1:19

7. "The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your _____ be made know to God." Phil. 4:6

8. Paul's great burden is that Jesus be magnified and that the worth of the gospel be publicly vindicated by the example of the Christ-_____ life being lived out by his followers.

9. "...I may hear...that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel and _____ frightened in anything by your opponents." Phil. 1:27-28

10. Christ-exalting fearlessness in the face of danger is not natural but supernatural. Fearless peace is the key to glorifying Christ in the world. Therefore, we _____ pray.
