

Job 19

They who prematurely put _____ forward to _____ out whatever is displeasing to them – _____ the judgement of God. John Calvin

Charles H. Spurgeon

It is not easy for _____ to live in this world without being _____ and misrepresented; certainly, those of us who live in full blaze of public life can hardly utter a word without having it twisted, _____, and misconstrued. We are often represented as saying what we loath even to think; yet we must not be _____ at that. The world loves lying, -it _____ has done so. And it _____ will.

A quote by John Calvin: They who prematurely put themselves forward to root out whatever is displeasing to them – overthrow the judgement of God.

_____, including human _____, happens by _____. John Calvin

When _____ and _____ strike, our faith is well founded if it is _____ on the promises of God. John Calvin

Another part and pieces from Charles H. Spurgeon sermon:

A Goel, a _____, an _____.

Two meanings of the word _____, - my kinsman, my vindicator, liveth.

Then the third meaning of the word goel certainly is _____, so Job could say, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." As I have already said, the next of kin, in the process of _____ his _____, was accustomed to redeem him from bondage, or to redeem any part of his estate that be under mortgage. So, let us think of how the _____ hath redeemed us from bondage. Having broken the law of God, we were in bondage to that law; we had received the spirit of _____ again to fear. But we, who have believed in Jesus, our Kinsman, can say that He hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a _____ for us, and that we are no longer in bondage.
